

Assignment : Day 1

Mail : girishsutrave1234@gmail.com

Name : Girish Sanjay Sutrave

```
<!DOCTYPE html>
<html lang="en">
<head>
  <title>Document</title>
</head>
<body>
  <h1>Tiger</h1>

  <h2>The Tiger is a National animal</h2>
   Tiger is the national animal of India. Therefore, tigers are considered v ery sacred in India. Several folkloric tales contain stories about tigers. In Hin du mythology, tigers often act as vahana or mount for some Indian goddesses like Durga. Tigers are full of glorious might and unmatched bravery. However, tigers are quite recluse creatures in their own habitat, unlike lions. Although full of courage and power, tigers prefer to stay within their own territories. The home of the tiger is called a "lair". Therefore, most tigers live inside their own la ir and territory. However, any national animal tiger essay will remain incomplete without discussing the family of tigers.

  <form>
    Enter Your Name : &nbsp;&nbsp;&nbsp;<input type="text" />
  </form>
</body>
</html>
```

Output:

Tiger

The Tiger is a National animal

Tiger is the national animal of India. Therefore, tigers are considered very sacred in India. Several folkloric tales contain stories about tigers. In Hindu mythology, tigers often act as vahana or mount for some Indian goddesses like Durga. Tigers are full of glorious might and unmatched bravery. However, tigers are quite reclusive creatures in their own habitat, unlike lions. Although full of courage and power, tigers prefer to stay within their own territories. The home of the tiger is called a "lair". Therefore, most tigers live inside their own lair and territory. However, any national animal tiger essay will remain incomplete without discussing the family of tigers.

Enter Your Name :